

Résumé

Hennie Beukes
info@nvnt.online

NVNT

Unique expertise

Hennie Beukes is a Senior Consultant in the field of Business Analysis, Business Process Management, Business Process Re-engineering and Enterprise Architecture. During his career interacting with Senior Officials, his ability to grasp the complexity and requirements of his clients, was extensively proven.

Contributing ideas that work

He is a self-motivated person who will take all aspects of the task at hand into consideration to plan the execution thereof before starting action. Due to his experience in all facets of a business, plus proven facilitation skills, he is able to comply to his clients' needs and requirements.

Experience that brings insight

Hennie has in excess of 30 years' experience in his field of expertise which includes in depth knowledge of Human Resources, Financials and Supply Chain Management, Information management and Information Security. Using Facilitation, Business Process Management and Functional Analysis techniques, he is able to transform clients' requirements into specification for implementing capabilities.

Industry Influence

Hennie has a track record in establishing trust relationships across the business, including the engagement with executives (Chiefs of Staff eg. HR, Logistics, Finances and Information Management in general) and all other levels of management.

Proficiencies and certifications

- BA (Psychology and Sociology).
- Certificate for Organisation and Work-study.
- Extensive experience in various frameworks pertaining to Organisational Development, Business Process Analysis and Enterprise Architecture.
- Use of Organisational Development, Process and Enterprise Architecture Toolsets as well as Learning- and Learner Management Systems.

Innovation Through Collaboration